

SPEAK OUT

“What Are You Most Excited For As An Incoming Howard Student?”

Sanaa Kimathi-Walker (she/her)

Freshman Health Science Major

Born in Houston, Raised in New York City

“As an incoming freshman, I am most excited about my road to self-discovery and leaving my mark on Howard’s campus. I look forward to continuing the legacy of my parents, who are proud Howard alums, and my village, who have poured into me and made me the person I am today. It is my hope, like my parents, that I build friendships that will eventually become my family. I’ve been surrounded by Howard alum all my life, who have been examples of great leadership, character, and service. I’m excited to be my best self and I know Howard University is the place that will help me reach my fullest potential.”

Efeoghene Rhonor (she/her)

Freshman Musical Theatre Major

Houston, Texas

“I am so excited to be apart of a community that works to enhance and cultivate the talents of America’s next young, Black leaders.”

Christian Wilkerson (he/him)

Freshman Photography Major
Jackson, Mississippi

“The environment. To be around a school that has culture with a rich history in unity.”

Karimah Mohammed (she/her)

Freshman Computer Science Major

Johnson City, Tennessee

“I am very excited to be around people who look like me doing great things. Because I have attended PWI’s a majority of my life, I think Howard will be a breath of much needed fresh air!”

Kelys Richardson (she/her)

Freshman Political Science Major

Mathematics Minor
Houston, Texas

“I’m excited to experience a culture shock. Everything about Howard is so different from life at home. The people, weather, the overall environment. It’s a shift 18 years in the making and I am so incredibly ready.”
